The Talk:
Towards a Sustainable Approach to New Development in Hong Kong

This talk is based on a research initiative funded by the Urban Land Institute (ULI) Foundation, the ULI 10 Principles Report, "Towards a Sustainable Approach to New Development in Hong Kong". Recently, ULI North Asia was awarded a second grant to further the research done in the ULI 10 Principles to see how they can influence large-scale developments in the future. This is a framework aimed to influence future large scale developments in Hong Kong and the region to encourage more pedestrian oriented and environmentally friendly places. With a changing Hong Kong, principles such as the ULI 10 Principles are poised to become instrumental in shaping Hong Kong.

Speakers:
Mr. John Fitzgerald
Executive Director and Vice President of ULI North Asia

Dr. Sujata S. Govada
Vice President (International Relations), HKIUD
