

Mr. Andrew MEAD

Head of Architecture

MTR Corporation Limited

Profile

Andrew Mead is MTR's Head of Architecture and is responsible for the design management of all new MTR stations, trains and transit facilities. In addition, he oversees the critically acclaimed Art in MTR programme, commissioning local and overseas artists to create site specific artworks in stations.

Andrew's passion is for improving the urban environment, creating places that are more than just spaces in which to wait for buses and trains. During his 30-year career in the transit industry, Andrew has been responsible for the design of over 200 metro stations in London, Toronto, Singapore, Dubai and Hong Kong.
